

The Daily Courant.

Friday, June 6. 1707.

Suza, May 22.

OUR Troops that are come out of Italy, will be recruited by the Beginning of June. The Marshal de Theſſe has ſummon'd in a great Number of Peaſants, which are to be arm'd and to ſerve as Militia with our Army. Men are employ'd Night and Day on the Fortifications of this Town, and on the Intrenchments in the Paſſes of the Mountains.

The following Liſt of the French Forces under the Marshal de Theſſe, came from Turin. It only ſerves at preſent for one Inſtance of the Diligence and Application of the Enemy in the Management of the War, to the Shame of ſome of the Allies; but we may well hope from what is paſt, it will ſhortly be alſo a new Proof of the Courage and Conduct of the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene in ſurmounting the great Obſtacles to their Irruption into France.

The following Liſt of the Troops of the Empire, that were with the Margrave of Brandenburg Bareith at Durmunz the 28th of May, was ſent by the Margrave himſelf in a Letter to the States General. It ſerves to ſhew which Circles and Members of the Empire had ſuppliſh'd their Contingents, and which (to the very great Prejudice of Germany and of the common Cauſe) had not.
